

Psychology Lab

The institution has well furnished, well equipped and well organized psychology lab with all the standardized verbal, nonverbal and performance psychological tests for measuring the essential psychological aspects like intelligence, personality, aptitude, interest, creativity, achievement, and adjustment etc. Thus, the lab gives opportunities to students for training in the areas of measurement and testing. This helps them to know about student psychology and plan instructional strategies accordingly to achieve the educational objectives.

